

Lesson Plans

April 30-May 4, 2018

This week students will work independently to read and complete book reports on two books they have read. They will work on these at school. We will continue with our open response writing practice and spelling words will be compound words. They will have a quiz on Friday. This will be our last spelling quiz for the year.