

Lesson Plans

October 2-6, 2017

Reading lessons this week will be about characters, setting, plot, and all the elements that we put together to make a story make sense in our minds. We will also spend time in close reading on skills that help us decode words and meaning.

In writing, lessons will cover revision, details in written work and getting a completed, publishable work.

Word sort words will include plurals made by adding s, es, y to l and add es.

Social Studies lessons will continue with national symbols and citizenship.
